

Heather Geyer, Administrative Services Director

Heather Geyer was appointed to the role of Administrative Services Director in January 2011. She served in this capacity on an interim basis from June 2010 to December 2010. As Director, she oversees the internal support services department committed to providing excellent service to internal and external customers.

Prior to being Administrative Services Director, Geyer served as the Assistant to the City Manager/Public Information Officer from December 2006 to June 2010. She began her career in local government management as an intern for the City of Greenwood Village, Colorado in 1999. She served as a New York Government Scholar in the summer of 2000 interning with New York City Parks Agency Director of Government Relations. Geyer later returned to Greenwood Village and served as Management Assistant to the Director of Parks, Trails & Recreation between 2000 and 2005 and Management Specialist in the City Manager's Office from 2005 to 2006.

Geyer earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science and Public Policy from University of Denver and a Masters of Arts in Political Science with an Emphasis in Public Policy from the University of Colorado at Denver. She is a graduate of the Senior Executive Institute (SEI) and a graduate of the Leadership ICMA Class of 2015.

Geyer is serving her second year as President of the Foothills Animal Shelter Board of Directors, the animal shelter servicing Jefferson County. Geyer is also currently a member of the Wheat Ridge Optimist Club, a local service organization supporting youth programming. She is a founding member of Colorado Women Leading Government, a group dedicated to advancing the role of women in local government. She is also a member of the International City County Management Association (ICMA), the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA), Colorado Government Financial Officers Association (CGFOA) and the Colorado City County Management Association (CCCMA).

She has received numerous national and state awards for organizational development, budget development and communications. Geyer presents at state and national conferences/webinars sharing the City's innovative practices. She lives in Wheat Ridge and is an avid Pure Barre enthusiast, enjoys hiking, traveling and spending time with her family.