People's Market to Celebrate Grand Opening in Wheat Ridge Specialty Food Shop Features Colorado-Produced Products

WHEAT RIDGE – The City of Wheat Ridge is pleased to announce the grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony of People's Market on Saturday, April 20th.

Mayor Jerry DiTullio and members of the City Council will join owner Brooke White of the People's Market for a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 11 a.m. at their Wheat Ridge facility located at 5630 W. 29th Avenue.

"This is a great shop located in an emerging shopping district in Wheat Ridge," stated Wheat Ridge Mayor Jerry DiTullio. "People's Market is a great compliment to the other tenants in the center. This business is another example of the great business community we're creating in Wheat Ridge"

People's Market opened their doors on April 5th and is ecstatic with the turnout so far. People's Market is a small specialty food shop featuring Colorado-produced products. From fresh bread delivered daily to coffee and spices, they offer a little bit of everything to their Wheat Ridge neighbors. Brooke White, proprietor said, "I am thrilled with the wonderful support the City of Wheat Ridge has shown me in opening my new business venture and I look forward to building on those relationships in the future."

For more information about People's Market visit their website at www.peoplesmarketdenver.com or call 303-237-4854 for more information.

The general public is invited to join the Mayor and members of the Wheat Ridge City Council for the ribbon cutting on April 20th at 11 a.m.
