Two Wheat Ridge Businesses to Host Ribbon Cuttings on June 19

- WHAT: Ribbon cutting ceremonies for two new businesses in Wheat Ridge.
- WHO: Business owners, elected officials, members of the Wheat Ridge Business Association, City staff.
- WHEN: Thursday, June 19
- TIME: 4:45 p.m. for Kings BBQ
5 p.m. for Seyfer Specialties
- WHERE: Kings BBQ: 4601 Harlan Street, Wheat Ridge
Seyfer Specialties: 4509 Harlan Street, Wheat Ridge

BACKGROUND: King BBQ owner CJ Johnson launched his southern smoked-style barbecue restaurant in 2006 in a trailer in the parking lot of Wheat Ridge Poultry on 29th and Depew. When a 1,000-square-foot space on Harlan became available, Johnson jumped at the chance to operate out of a larger, brick-and-mortar location. Seyfer Specialties is a family-owned business that repairs and enhances hot rod, muscle cars, original cars and late-model performance machines. The new business is an offshoot of Seyfer Automotive, an auto repair shop dating back to 1961.
