Wheat Ridge, Colorado (August 20, 2015) – The USA Pro Cycling Challenge will speed through Wheat Ridge on August 23rd, leading to the closure of several roads between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. The following roads will be impacted by the event:

- Youngfield Street at West 32nd Avenue
- West 32nd Avenue from Youngfield Street to Kipling Street
- Kipling Street from West 32nd Avenue to West 26th Avenue
- West 26th Avenue from Kipling Street to Wadsworth Boulevard
- Wadsworth Boulevard from West 26th Avenue to West 32nd Avenue
- West 32nd Avenue from Wadsworth Boulevard to Sheridan Boulevard
- Sheridan Boulevard from West 32nd Avenue to West 29th Avenue

The closure of these roads is expected to last for a half hour. The only access permitted during this timeframe will be for race personnel and emergency vehicles. Police department personnel and volunteers will be posted at all streets and alleys along the race route to keep traffic off these roads.

The route through Wheat Ridge is part of the Challenge's final stage, which takes racers from a four-mile climb up Lookout Mountain to downtown Denver for a blazing fast circuit around City Park and the state Capitol. The City is encouraging residents to cheer the racers on as they travel through Wheat Ridge.

For more information regarding the race, visit the City website at www.ciwheatridge.co.us or contact Patrol Operators Commander Mark Cooney at 303-235-2931.
