Two juvenile suspects have been taken into custody in connection with a burglary that occurred at Best Meds Marijuana on Lamar Street in the early morning hours of Saturday, December 12, 2015. Two male suspects wearing hoods and bandanas were caught on video smashing the front door of the dispensary and leaving with a large quantity of marijuana. School resource officers from both the Wheat Ridge Police Department and the Arvada Police Department assisted Wheat Ridge Detectives with the investigation.

"I'd like to commend our officers for their swift work in this investigation and I'd like to thank the school resource officers and the Arvada Police Department for their assistance," said Wheat Ridge Police Chief Dan Brennan.
