The West Chamber Announces Honorees for 2015 Jefferson County Hall of Fame Awards

LAKESWOOD, CO - The West Chamber is proud to announce the 2015 honorees for the Jefferson County Hall of Fame Awards, an annual event that honors outstanding individuals from Jefferson County, Colorado.

Honorees for the 2015 Hall of Fame Awards are: Bob Briggs (Westminster), Gretchen Cerveney (Wheat Ridge), Faye Griffin (Unincorporated Jeffco), Thomas Murray (Lakewood), and John Tracy (Golden).

"We are pleased with the large group of nominations we received from across the county," stated Jefferson County Hall of Fame Task Force Chair Ernie Witucki.

The West Chamber invites members of the community to join us in honoring these outstanding individuals at the 2015 Jefferson County Hall of Fame Awards Luncheon on Tuesday, September 29, 2015 at 11:30 a.m. at Sheraton Denver West Hotel. Individual seats are $55 or $550 for corporate tables of eight.

The Jefferson County Hall of Fame is a program of the West Chamber that recognizes Business, Government, and Philanthropy by honoring outstanding individuals, from past and present, who have had significant long-lasting impacts through their leadership and contributions to Jefferson County's economy, community and legacy. The Lakewood Foothills Rotary is a sponsor of the Jefferson County Hall of Fame Gallery in the chamber offices. The West Chamber is a regional chamber of commerce serving all of Jefferson County. Started in 1947 as the Lakewood Chamber of Commerce, it merged with the Wheat Ridge Chamber to become The West Chamber.
