Wheat Ridge Seeks Volunteers for Outside Agency Program Committee

Applications Being Accepted through April 15, 2019

WHEAT RIDGE, Colo., March 25, 2019 -- The City of Wheat Ridge is seeking volunteers for the Outside Agency Program Committee. These volunteers play a vital role in selecting the non-profit organizations who make a difference in the quality of life for Wheat Ridge residents. The organizations selected for funds provide local services to those in need. Eligible organizations are non-profit and recognized as non-denominational with designation as a 501 (c) (3) pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Deadline for applications is April 15, 2019.

The Committee reviews the applications in order to make recommendations to City Council on the organizations selected to receive funding from the City. Applicants give a 10-minute presentation to the committee about their organization, and answer questions during a City Council meeting. All applications also provide a copy of the organization's most recent budget documents including revenues and expenditures.

One Wheat Ridge resident represents each City Council District on the Committee and serves for a two-year budget cycle term (2019 and 2020) which expires in July 2020. Apply as a volunteer Committee member, or for more information contact Marianne Schilling, assistant to the city manager at 303-235-2867 or mschilling@ci.wheatridge.co.us. The deadline for application submission is Monday, April 15, 2019.
